

The Wesleyan Alumnae

May, 1963

TO OLD WESLEYAN

*Just before the dawn of day had broken,
Sweeping flames and embers filled the gloom;
It seemed at last the irate gods had spoken*

*And stop the pounding of the wrecking crew.
O sacred halls, the oldest in the land,
You did not go as human minds had planned*

*College of my youth, Old Wesleyan
Stately you stood and proudly bore your name.
Did you defy ignoble death by man*

The Fire

reduces old building to dust and ashes

A raging fire consumed the Old Wesleyan buildings College Street in the early morning hours of Sunday, February 24, bringing to a dramatic and final end the beloved and historic structures.

The bronze bell, which for many years summoned students to study and to worship toppled in its blazing hour, melted into oblivion; Pierce Chapel was reduced to a mass of concrete steps with twisted metal bannisters.

Its origin unknown, the fire ravaged walls already partly dismantled by wreckers who were clearing the site for Macon's new three million dollar Post Office, planned to resemble the original building. In spite of a hard blowing wind, the blaze leapt hundreds of feet, leapt across the street and incinerated two apartment buildings, creating a veritable river of fire down College Street.

The entire fire-fighting forces of Macon and surrounding towns raced to the scene of devastation. Their heroic efforts managed to constrain the holocaust, without loss of life or serious injury. Thirty families escaping in their nightgowns, lost their homes and all their possessions. Hundreds of people converged on the place; others stood at their windows weeping as raging red poured from the window-slits of the black Comer building silhouetted against the sky.

An electric reaction spread over the city. As the news came on the air, long distance calls began pouring in, Old Wesleyan was burning to the ground!

Alumnae all over the world will be relieved to know that the furnishings from the Adelphean and Philomathean dormitory rooms had been removed and are on loan from the College to the U. D. C. Historical House on Mulberry Street; all portraits, plaques, furniture, and other historical treasures had been carefully transferred to Wesleyan College, Rivoli, and are adding significance and beauty to her stately Georgian buildings. In Tate Hall, portraits of former presidents and benefactors are permanently placed; the portrait of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek (Mei Ling Soong, 1916) and the framed embroideries representing the Four Seasons which she presented to the college hang in the president's office.

Dr. Spencer King, historian, who watched the fire from his window, wrote in the Macon Telegraph: "It seemed that a mighty flame as large as the city itself were rolling toward us. As I stood fascinated, with my gaze fixed on the red skyline, I saw the dignified Old Lady reflected there in all her majesty.

"Old Wesleyan is gone! She was the personification of beauty, dignity, wisdom, intellect, grace, love. Those who wanted so earnestly to keep the Old Lady as a symbol wanted the tangible reminder of all these traits for which she stood, of course, but more than that they wanted to hold on to those virtues. With her passing the value of what she stood for must not pass.

"Old Wesleyan lay on her bier Sunday morning, burned clean and pure as the great fire could make her. She died in dignity and honor, the personification of Christian virtues . . ."

Alumnae will join their voices with new meaning and emotion as they sing the beloved Alma Mater:

"A star in the dark is thy glorious past, Forever and ever thy glory shall last . . ."

Alumnae to Elect Two Officers

ANNE GRIFFIN GATEWOOD

Anne Gatewood For Board of Managers

Anne Griffin Gatewood, nominee for the Board of Managers, is an AB 1937 graduate of Wesleyan and is very active in the work of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association. She recently entertained the alumnae in her area at her home in Americus, Ga., where a club was organized and officers elected for next year.

Anne is married to Dr. T. Schley Gatewood, an obstetrician and gynecologist. They have four children: Betty Anne Wylie who is married and lives in Decatur, Ga; Schley, Jr., a sophomore pre-med student at Duke University; Connie, 16, a high school student; and Harriet, 13, an eighth grader. Before her marriage, Anne taught school in Cuthbert and Albany. Some of her recent activities include teaching in the Sunday School of the Presbyterian Church; serving as president of the Women's Organization of the Church; acting as local president and district manager of the Medical Auxiliary; being a member on the Americus Board of Education and the board of the Sumter County chapter of the American Red Cross.

RUTH BENEDICT WATSON

Ruth Watson Alumnae Nominee For Trustee

Ruth Benedict Watson who is the nominee for the Alumnae Trustee to be elected at the annual meeting of the Alumnae Association, June 1, has a continued record of service and loyalty to Wesleyan College since her college days.

Through the years she has been active in Sunday School work, civic projects and active in the American Red Cross Chapter, especially during the war. Two busy years were spent in Raleigh, N. C. when her husband served in the State Legislature. She is president of a seed business with her sons. She has three children, two sons and a daughter of whom she is very proud. Her real pride and joy are her twelve grandchildren including a set of twins. Quoting from one of her letters she said "I feel a very great honor has been bestowed upon me in being asked to serve on the Board of Trustees. When elected I shall make every effort not to fail them."

Dr. Myron Wicke To Speak

Members and friends of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association attending the annual events May 31 and June 1, will be privileged to hear the distinguished Dr. Myron Forrest Wicke. He will be featured as guest speaker at the annual meeting Saturday morning, June 1.

A nationally known educator, he is the author of several books, among which are "On Teaching in a Christian College", "Hand Book for Trustees" and is co-author of "The Deanship of the Liberal Arts College." His degrees cover a wide background of academic work.

Dr. Wicke has visited the campus on several occasions, twice as chairman of the survey committee of the University Senate and the Board of Education of The Methodist Church.

On this visit he will be the guest of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association when reunion classes as well as all alumnae are invited to attend.

College for a Day and Alumnae Houseparty

An exciting innovation for Alumnae Weekend this year College for a Day—will precede the Alumnae Houseparty. Members of reunion classes and all other Alumnae will have the privilege of returning to campus Friday morning, May 31, to attend lectures that day.

Many Alumnae will travel miles to hear their favorite English professor, Dr. George Warren Gignilliat, Jr., who had the Cobb professorship of English for 33 years. The subject of his lecture and discussion "Has My Ability to Appreciate Shakespeare's Tragedies Improved Since My College Days?" Dr. Gin, as he is affectionately called, plans to retire in June from his teaching position at Wesleyan.

In addition to the morning lecture the afternoon will be spent continuing education. Two classes of College for a Day will include a lecture by Dr. Bernard C. Murdoch, Professor of Psychology and Director of Testing. He came to Wesleyan in 1954 and has given distinguished service as Chairman of the Psychology Department. The title of his lecture is "Psychology in 1963 and Its Impact on Our Lives."

The third and last session will be presented by Mr. Robert Malone, who is a newcomer in the Art Department. He has chosen to lecture on "Modern Revival of Print Making in America." He will trace his presentation through the revolution in art, using the Carnegie slides from the Elder Memorial Library collection, to show art forms which have grown out of the past. He plans to demonstrate print making using copper plates.

College for a Day is to be held on the ground floor of the Porter Family Memorial Auditorium in the small rehearsal hall. Parking space is available at the rear of the building.

Following is the schedule and a suggested list of books for parallel reading that will make College for a Day a worthwhile adventure in your continuing education.

ALUMNAE HOUSEPARTY

At the conclusion of College for a Day, Alumnae who were unable to arrive early will be checking in for the events that follow. The Candlelight dinner at 6:30 is always a happy occasion when the Golden and Silver Anniversary classes are seated in the places of honor. All other reunion classes have special tables in the beautiful Anderson Dining Room made gala for the event.

The Open House at Magnolia Hill is traditional now, with Dr. and Mrs. Strickland being hosts to all alumnae returning to campus.

Parties at various places in the city will be held for reunion classes after the Open House on the hill.

For the first time to reunioners, breakfast will be served in the new snack-bar Saturday between 8:30 and 9:30.

Candlelighters and Seniors will assemble on Mount Vernon Porch for the Processional at 10:30 A.M.

At 11:00 A.M. the Annual meeting of the Alumnae Association which is the highlight of all events will be held in the Porter Auditorium. Guest speaker this year will be Dr. Myron Wicke from Nashville, Tennessee.

Luncheon honoring our newest Alumnae, Senior Class of 1963, will be served in the Anderson Dining Room at 1:30 P.M. concluding the Alumnae House Party.

Commencement Speakers

Dr. Ralph Sockman

Dr. Ralph Sockman, famous pastor for fifty years of Christ Church, Methodist, in New York City, will return to Wesleyan to deliver the Commencement Address on Monday morning, June 3, in Porter Family Memorial Auditorium.

Ever since he addressed the graduating class on another Monday, thirteen years ago (June 3, 1950), Wesleyan has dreamed and hoped for the return of Dr. Sockman. Dynamic, brilliant, and eloquent he thrilled his audience with his thought-provoking message. Through Mr. W. D. Anderson, then Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Dr. Sockman had been invited by President Silas Johnson to preach the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, but his active pastoral duties prevented this. He filled his pulpit in New York that morning, and that evening flew to Macon. Mr. Anderson was Dr. Sockman's host, with Wesleyan the topic for discussion on Sunday night, at breakfast Monday morning, and at a luncheon at the Anderson home in honor of Dr. Sockman, following his address.

Over the years, many of his auditors of that Convocation day—faculty, students, and friends, including members of the Anderson family—have attended Christ Church whenever they were in New York on Sundays.

In November, 1961, before his retirement at the end of the year, Dr. Sockman's church held a banquet in the ballroom of the Waldorf in honor of him and his wife, and their fifty years of service to Christ Church. Among the 1,800 attending this brilliant and beautiful golden celebration were Mrs. William F. Quillian (Nonie Acree, 1909); her son William F. Quillian Jr., President of Randolph-Macon College; and Jeanie (Loyal) Manget (1912), invited by Mr. and Mrs. James C. Huey, members of Christ Church.

From his brief visit to Wesleyan in 1950, Dr. Sockman has kept this college in mind and heart, inspiring friends of

Dr. G. Paul Butler

Dr. G. Paul Butler, Little Silver, N. J. will preach the Baccalaureate sermon in the Porter Family Memorial Auditorium, Sunday, June 2. He is the editor of the New York Mirror's Department of Books, Churches and Schools, and also edits the book, "Best Sermons". The eighth edition included a sermon by Wesleyan's own President, Dr. W. Earl Strickland and a sermon by Dr. Ralph Sockman.

It is a particular pleasure to welcome Dr. Butler on this occasion, for he is the father of a member of the senior class.

Woodrow Wilson Fellowship

Renate Butler, whose father, Dr. G. Paul Butler, is to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon to his daughter's graduating class, has been awarded a first year Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. This will cover full tuition at the graduate school of her choice, plus a stipend of $1500.00. Winners were selected from 9767 candidates.

Voted Town and Country Girl of the Year by the Wesleyan faculty, Renate will use her fellowship at Harvard, Columbia, or California to further her study of modern languages, in which she majors at Wesleyan. She has been a student assistant in the language lab for the past two years.

President of her class her junior year, and of the Dance Club, Renate is a member of Phi Beta Phi honor society, listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, a member of International Relations Club and active on Stunt committee.

the college. He was instrumental in Renate Butler's choosing Wesleyan for her college. He will return to give the 1963 address to her class.

Phi Delta Phi Honors Six

Six new members were elected to Phi Delta Phi Honor Society at Wesleyan College and were honored at a convocation program in Porter Auditorium at 10:30 A.M. on Wednesday, February 27, 1963.

William H. Davies Macon businessman, delivered the address at that time.

Membership in Phi Delta Phi is open to liberal arts seniors and is conditioned upon character, loyalty to the institution, and academic standing. The members are elected by the society upon recommendation of the faculty.

Selected for the honor were Renate Butler of Little Silver, N.J., Sylvia Maxwell of Butler, Jo Alice Latham of Jesup, Ann Lyn Lightner of Tampa, Fla., Linda Quinn of Gaffney, S. C., and Peggy Craig of Decatur, Ga.

President of the Wesleyan chapter is Joyce Reddick Schafer, Margaret Stubbs Gordon is secretary, and Ann Nalls Croom, treasurer. All are members of the faculty. Phi Beta Kappa members of the Wesleyan faculty serve as honorary members of the society and they are Dr. Joseph B. James, Miss Sylvia Ross, Dr. G. W. Gignilliat and Mrs. Ruth Slentz.

Miss Elizabeth Winn, registrar and member of Phi Delta Phi, gave a short history of the society at the meeting. Mrs. Gordon presented the new members who were pinned by Mrs. Slentz and Mrs. Croom.

The speaker for the program was introduced by Dr. James and Mrs. Schafer presided over the entire program.

Alumnae Report on Meetings

Columbus

Holding the first of a series of Wesleyan Alumnae meetings scheduled during February and March, was Columbus, Georgia. The luncheon meeting held on February 2 at the Christ Fellowship Association, and featured as speaker Allen Sanders, director of admissions at Wesleyan.

Both the Columbus Enquirer and the Columbus, Ga., Ledger quoted Mr. Sanders as stating that "the enthusiasm of the alumnae has been unequaled for all the years of Wesleyan's outstanding history. Evidence of this enthusiasm lies in a projected program to raise a quarter of a million dollars for an endowment to increase faculty salaries and at the same time continue an annual gift for scholarships."

Introduced by Mrs. John Durden, president of the Columbus Club, Mr. Sanders stated that "Wesleyan College is poised for a giant-step forward fashioning another link in its 128th year."

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Cedric Faber, general chairman of arrangement, Mrs. J. Robert Elliott, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. J. R. Estes, Mrs. Harlow W. Clark, and Mrs. Heidt Neal.

Mrs. Glenn Martin and Mrs. Vincent Berquist were in charge of table decorations. The Valentine theme was carried out in both flowers and lace hearts, and a symbolic "W" in Wesleyan colors was featured.

Special guests were Dr. John P. Deason, principal of Columbus High School, and Miss Diana Hall.

Other Wesleyan Alumnae attending the luncheon were Mrs. Cooper Campbell, Mrs. Charles Q. Hall, Mrs. B. E. Anderson, Mrs. F. Paul Belk, Mrs. Stanley Benson, Mrs. R. L. Drew, Mrs. Robert Edmond, Mrs. Fred Fletcher, Mrs. Ralph Hinman, Mrs. Harry Jackson, Mrs. A. Quillian Janes, Mrs. W. H. Maddox, Mrs. W. A. Pringle, Mrs. Roy Revell, Mrs. Jack Rutledge, Mrs. David Walker, Mrs. Horace A. Smith, Mrs. Neal Wickham, Mrs. J. E. Slaughter, Jr., and Mrs. Ralph M. Hinman.

Washington D. C.

Thirty-five guests attended the Washington Alumnae Luncheon meeting on Saturday, February 2, at the Kennedy Warren Apartments in Washington, D. C.

The meeting was called by Carol Arnold and Carrie Allgood. Presentations

Following the Alumnae Workshop in January meetings were scheduled in thirty areas. The next pages record these activities were made by Dr. W. Earl Strickland and Weyman C. Huckabee. Dr. Strickland discussed The Ten Year Program. Mr. Huckabee presented the loyalty Fund and the new Educational Gift Program.

Following these presentations, the alumnae were asked to identify themselves and give a brief statement about their experiences at Wesleyan College.

Eleven of the alumnae remained after the meeting to discuss ways in which they could be useful to the college by serving as area representatives. These persons were asked, under the guidance of Miss Allgood and Miss Arnold, to make contact with alumnae who were not present and tell them of Wesleyan's program and to seek their participation in the Loyalty Fund. The eleven were asked further to consider making contact with the high schools in their community as a part of the recruitment program for students.

The alumnae asked whether it may be possible for the Wesleyan Glee Club to visit Washington in the spring of 1964. They also indicated their willingness to be of assistance in the future should another Washington Seminar for students be arranged.

New York

Thirteen Wesleyan Alumnae from the New York area met in the New York Advertising Club for lunch on February 7.

Weyman C. Huckabee, Vice President for Development at Wesleyan, was speaker. Mr. Huckabee spoke of the high morale among faculty and students at Wesleyan. He pointed out that since the problem of the old building has finally been settled, everyone's time, interest, and means now can be applied to strengthen Wesleyan for her future role in higher education for women. He spoke of the new deferred giving program, as well as the serious consideration being given to secure corporate support. Mr. Huckabee stressed the great need for strengthening the faculty by offering competitive salaries.

During the meal each alumnae was invited to give her name, class, major, and relate, if she wished, some incident of her college life.

Enthusiasm was shown for the opportunity being given interested alumnae to make contact with local high schools, with a view toward making Wesleyan's name better known. Volunteering as Wesleyan representatives in their communities were: Ande Davis Bottorff who was responsible for calling the meeting, and Nancy Claymore Watson, Lois Goldman Cowan, Caroline Hopkins Brown, and Winifred Bosch Titterton.

Alumnae here are planning to send out notices before Christmas setting a future meeting date in February of 1964.

Other Alumnae present were: Mrs. Jane R. Wisdom, Mrs. Audrey Knight Meyer, Mrs. Ann Aiken Solomon, Mrs. Sequel Lee Naylor, Mrs. Jamie Tyson Dodd, Mrs. LeVent Shepherd Eubanks, Miss Mary Lou Barnwell, and Miss Sarah Carr Conley.

Cordele

Dr. Joseph B. James, Dean at Wesleyan attended a Dutch luncheon of Cordele Alumnae as guest speaker, on February 7.

Alumnae gather at Thomasville

Thomasville

Alumnae of Wesleyan College from Thomasville, Cairo, Quitman, Boston, Dixie, Meigs, Metcalf, and Pavo met for a luncheon at the Thomasville Garden Center on February 7. Dr. W. Earl Strickland, Wesleyan's President, spoke at the meeting.

"Wesleyan stresses quality rather than quantity in her student body," said the president, who pointed out that Wesleyan plans to remain a small, excellent women's college with a maximum enrollment of no more than 800 to 850 girls.

As reported in the Thomasville paper, Dr. Strickland told the guests about the new air-conditioned dormitory at Wesleyan, now being built, as well as the student activity center which opened last fall. Every dormitory on the campus has been remodeled and refurnished.

Dr. Strickland outlined improvements in recreational facilities, the equipment in the department of music, and told of recent grants for expanding the library.

Mrs. W. Park Smith, Mrs. Forrest Caldwell, Mrs. Heath Varnedoe, and Mrs. J. C. Pringle were in charge of arrangements for the luncheon.

Attending from Thomasville were Mrs. John Watt, Mrs. Ralph Neel, Sr., Mrs. T. H. Vann, Mrs. Charlotte A. Golden, Mrs. William McCollum, Mrs. R. C. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Wallace Scoville, Mrs. J. C. Knepton, Mrs. John Lipsey, Mrs. J. E. Whiddon, Jr., and Mrs. J. R. Dillon.

Other alumnae in the area included Mrs. J. R. Roddenbery, Mrs. R. H. Jefferson, Mrs. J. S. Weathers, and Mrs. W. A. Lundy of Cairo; Mrs. Earl Carter of Tallahassee; Mrs. E. Y. Fry of Quitman, and Mrs. J. R. Crane of Dixie.

Americus

On February 7, Anne Griffin Gatewood entertained Wesleyan Alumnae in the Americus area with a tea at her home on Macon Road.

Dr. Joseph B. James, Dean of Wesleyan, spoke at the tea on future plans for the college.

Mary C. Moore was elected president of the newly formed Americus Alumnae group.

As reported in The Americus Times-Recorder, Wesleyan colors of purple and lavender were carried out in the appointments for the tea; the table being covered in purple overlaid with lace, along with purple grapes, lilacs, and lavender candles used for decoration.

Assisting in serving were Lois McMath Mathis, Betsy Smith Buchanan, Fred Turpin Hogg, and Frances Davenport Hudson.

Other guests present were: Jean Adams Carswell, Kathleen Hearn Emmet, Christine Poole Anderson, Laura Ansley Hale, Nell Hogg Hines, Massie Crittenden Lane, Claudia Davenport Leonard, Peggy Leonard Glover, Leita Moore Morgan, Katherine Smith Seymour, Eva Shiver Lena McMath Small, Marjorie Andrews Sumerford, Marie Haley Warren, Dot McLean Wilcox, Callie Bell Webb, and Rosalind Lipscomb Zimmerman.

Alumnae who attended the coffee were Mrs. William Littleton, hostess, Mrs. C. L. Middlebrooks and Mrs. J. J. Garrard of Milledgeville; Mrs. J. J. Harris of Willow Valley Farm, Jackson; Mrs. Larry Bauman, III, Eatonton; and Mrs. O. M. Peden, Jr., of Sparta.

MARY BOWDEN ADDY

Decatur

Decatur Wesleyan Alumnae met at the Decatur Federal Savings and Loan Building for tea on March 2, with Weyman C. Huckabee, Vice President of the college, as speaker.

Lucile Mobley Moore was chairman in charge of arrangements.

Attending the tea was Mary Bowden Addy who graduated with an A.B. degree from Wesleyan, and received her B.M. in 1891. Mrs. Addy has been teaching music for 72 years, 33 of those in Decatur. Her niece, Lucile Bowden Johnson, recently established a music scholarship at Wesleyan in Mrs. Addy's name.

Savannah

Twenty-seven Savannah Alumnae of Wesleyan held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Will D. Weeks on Washington Ave., on the evening of February 19.

Weyman C. Huckabee, Vice President of Wesleyan, spoke on the subject "Wesleyan Today" and showed slides of new buildings on the campus.

Mrs. Claudia Leonard, Wesleyan field representative, was a special guest at the meeting, as was Mrs. Weyman C. Huckabee.

Mrs. Milton B. Ellis presented to Mr. Huckabee a century-old Wesleyan diploma. It was issued in 1857 to a great aunt of Mrs. Ellis', Susan Jones of Greenwood Plantation near Thomasville.

The meeting received exceptionally good radio, TV, and newspaper coverage, as well as notices in church bulletins.

Savannah Alumnae made a motion at the meeting to invite the Wesleyan choir to sing at the Fine Arts Festival to be held in that city.

Among those assisting in the program were Mrs. M. F. Nunez, a member of the Board of Managers of the Alumnae Association; Mrs. E. B. Gaines, Jr., general and publicity chairman; Mrs. Mary Gardner and Mrs. Tom Johnson, refreshments; Mrs. Marion F. Baker, Mrs. Waldo Bradley, Mrs. Baldwin Bridger, Miss Betty Cathron, Mrs. Milton Ellis, Mrs. Sidney S. Fleming, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Joyner, Mrs. W. R. McLeod, and Mrs. J. V. Morrison.

Mothers of Wesleyan students attending the meeting were Mrs. H. S. Dreese, Jr., Mrs. L. B. Hall, and Mrs. Florence Miller.

Covington

Miss Sarah Mobley was hostess at her home with a luncheon for Wesleyan Alumnae in the Covington area on February 21. Mrs. Grover Jones, Alumnae Secretary at the college, spoke at the luncheon and was a special guest along with Miss Katharine Carnes and Mrs. Elizabeth Dixon, both from Wesleyan.

Attending from Covington were Mrs. E. L. Stephenson, Mrs. Jack Hayes Morgan, Mrs. S. J. Morcock, Mrs. Thomas J. Harwell, Mrs. E. W. Exley, Mrs. Greeley H. Ellis, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. E. J. Callaway, and Miss Pauline Anderson.

Coming to the luncheon from Conway were Mrs. C. E. Martin, Mrs. M. F. Hurst, and Mrs. C. B. Fitzgerald, and from Porterdale, Miss Mae Hardman.

Thomaston

Mary Francis Nall entertained Thomaston Area Wesleyan Alumnae at her home, 101 Johnston Drive, on the afternoon of February 21. Weyman C. Huckabee, Vice President of Wesleyan, was guest speaker.

Alumnae who attended the meeting were: Gheraltine Knox Holland, Jeanne Marie Gardner, Julie Elliott Greer, Martha Davis Moseby, Frances Roberts White, Grace Laramore Hightower, and Martha Benns Reeves of Thomaston, and Libba Harman Woodall of Woodland.

Kennedy Sinclair Program

There are places for the names of fifty alumnae to be added to the mailing list of the new Educational Gift Program in progress at Wesleyan. This will provide alumnae without obligation, important information concerning the savings of income and estate taxes through gifts to Wesleyan. These may be in the form of a bequest, an outright gift or a trust from which the donor will receive all income during life. A conference with the new Development Officer can be arranged or your name will be added to the list for this informative material on request to the Alumnae Office.

Waycross

Weyman C. Huckabee spoke to Wesleyan Alumnae in Waycross at a coffee given at the First Methodist Church on February 27.

Lucille Pierce, president of the local Alumnae group, was chairman. Julia Bell Pierce, co-chairman, assisted with arrangements for the coffee.

Special guests included Mrs. Weyman C. Huckabee, the Rev. Mr. A. J. Shirah, Mrs. Mac Wildes, and the Rev. Mr. Jake Hillis.

Alumnae attending the coffee not included in the picture published in the Waycross Journal-Herald were: Dorothy Quillian Smith, Florris Woodard Strickland, Inez Ellington Green, and Elna Peagler Davis.

Brunswick

Meeting for tea on February 27 at the First Methodist Church in Brunswick, Wesleyan Alumnae in this area heard Weyman C. Huckabee, Vice President of the college, speak on future plans for Wesleyan, as well as recent developments.

Chairman in charge of the tea was Mary Miller. Others attending were: Mrs. Corra Wilcox, Mrs. William Page, Mary E. Sapp, Mrs. C. E. Hight, Mrs. W. R. Deal, Mrs. C. E. Miller, Mrs. J. L. Shirley, and Mrs. C. D. Flanders.

Gainesville

Wesleyan Alumnae in the Gainesville area held a coffee at the Country Club on March 13, with Weyman C. Huckabee as their speaker.

Elizabeth Martin Jennings was chairman of arrangements, with Alice Stafford Broadwater as co-chairman.

Alumnae attending the coffee were: Katherine Perryman Andrews, C. B. Branham, Olive Capps Butler, Randy Duncan Parks, Mary Ferguson Farley, Laura Griffin Fuller, Helen Youngblood Kendrick, Happy Garner Kirkpatrick, Elizabeth Ashford Romberg, Betty Smith Jennings, Alice Stafford Broadwater, and Jo Ann Russell Campbell.

Dalton

The Dalton Alumnae met at the home of Mrs. H. S. Looper, Jr. with Mrs. Rollins Jolly as co-hostess. Following a period of warm fellowship, highlighted with refreshments, Mr. Allen Sanders, Director of Admissions, spoke to the group concerning current Wesleyan affairs. Heard with great enthusiasm was the report on the upgrading of the student body through higher scholastic requirements for admission. and the prospects for an enlarged enrollment as the result of a new air-conditioned dormitory now under construction and available for the 1963-64 academic term.

While in Dalton Mr. Sanders spoke to the Dalton High School, and the Rotary Club, under the sponsorship of the Wesleyan Alumnae group.

Ashburn

Ashburn Wesleyan Alumnae were addressed by the president of the college, Dr. W. Earl Strickland, at a luncheon held at the House by the Side of the Road on March 30. Dr. Strickland discussed Wesleyan's progress, and stressed its need of assistance from Alumnae.

Those who attended the luncheon were: Susan Perkins, who was chairman for the meeting, Miss Julieanne Raines, Mrs. John D. Raines, Mrs. C. L. Clark, Mrs. J. R. Murphy, Mrs. S. B. Elliot, Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. Hazel T. Kerns, Mrs. Charlie Hunt, all of Ashburn; Mrs. J. W. McElroy and Mrs. W. T. Mashburn of Fitzgerald, and Mrs. Mary L. Beecham of Lynchburg, Virginia.

Miami

Wesleyan Alumnae from Miami, Florida, and surrounding areas were addressed on March 6 by Freda Kaplan Nadler '26 at a luncheon held at Toby's Cafeteria. Mrs. Nadler was introduced by a classmate, Dorothy Allen Lund '26.

Mrs. Nadler, a former National Alumnae President and Alumnae Trustee, spoke on Wesleyan's progress as well as plans for the future.

Highlighting the meeting was the formation of a South Florida Wesleyan Club in response to a motion by Minor Ruth Shockley '28. Anne Carlton Blanchard '47 was elected president; Frances Oehmig Collins '47, vice president; Janet Ward Dittus '56, secretary; and Frances Thurman Fitzgerald '45, treasurer.

The Alumnae Board of the new group consists of Mrs. Shockley, Lorraine Wilcox Brown, Gladys Garfield Tubbs '18, Betty Wade Howard '53 (publicity), Frances Tillman Moon '56 (telephone committee). The Board will be in session in the future.

Mrs. Blanchard personified the spirit of Wesleyan by wearing a lavender dress and opening the meeting by singing the John Wesley grace. Among the reminiscences of Wesleyan were the stories Caroline Knight Dodd '15 told of her classmate, Madame Chiang Kai-shek.

Other Alumnae attending the meeting were Rose Glover Wander '09 and Edith Schwartz Ogle '45. Two mothers of prospective students were present: Mrs. Eugene Baxter and Mrs. T. E. Williams.

The meeting was publicized in the Miami Herald.

Columbia, S. C.

Mary Margaret Woodward McNeill and Louise Wadsworth Jeffcoat were chairmen for a luncheon held for Wesleyan Alumnae in Columbia, South Carolina on April 6. Dr. W. Earl Strickland addressed the group, and Mrs. Strickland attended as a guest.

The Ninth Annual

Wesleyan College and the Wesleyan Alumnae Association were co-sponsors at the ninth annual Parents Day held on the Wesleyan campus Saturday, March 16. During the day a Parents organization was formed. Faculty and parents had an opportunity to meet and discuss courses for their daughters, open house was held in the dormitories, a barbecue was enjoyed and the event was concluded with the traditional and original "Stunt Night" program presented by the entire student body.

Following registration for the day, in the lobby of Porter Family Memorial Building, parents were invited to visit an exhibit of Student Art in the East Gallery of the same building.

During the afternoon a program was presented in the auditorium at which time, Emily Hearn Webb, president of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association, presided.

Mr. Weyman Huckabee, vice president for development, introduced Mr. B. G. Smith, of Tampa, Fla., who proposed the Parents Organization for Wesleyan. The proposal was voted on and accepted by the assembled group of parents, and Mr. Smith was elected chairman.

Dr. W. Earl Strickland, president, talked on "Wesleyan's Search for Quality". Following the program the parents met the faculty in Candler Memorial Library.

Parents Day

An informal party followed in the Recreation Center and Snack-Bar, where music was furnished by the Wesleyan Washboard Band. Open House in the dormitories gave the parents an opportunity to visit their daughters' rooms at this time.

A delicious barbecue supper was served in the Porter Gymnasium with 960 attending. Following the meal the Stunt Night performance was held in Porter Auditorium.

Leah Strong, the genial New Englander, came to Wesleyan in 1961 as associate professor of United States Language and Literature. Her academic degrees are as follows: A.B. Allegheny College, A.M. Cornell University, PhD Syracuse University.

She fitted into the college community promptly. Students find her classes stimulating. Quoting from a senior "Her lectures are not cut and dried from the text for she brings to us much additional subject matter from outside sources."

She also brings interest outside her class room to the campus with her hobby—photography. Her Minolta SR2 camera is her constant companion at all collegiate events. Everyone has become accustomed to the flash of bulbs and no one is surprised to see Dr. Strong step out of her pumps, climb into a chair or on a table, to aim for a good shot at an alumnae group at Parents Day or at Phi Delta Phi induction.

We are indebted to her for the candid pictures shown in this and other issues of The Wesleyan Alumnae.

--	--	---	--	--

"Old Wesleyan destroyed!" No,
that could never be—
As long as life shall last,
she will be a part of me;
Her towers pointing skyward,
her doors of knowledge wide,
Her sacred old Pierce Chapel, where memories abide!

Our Class was Gold and White—
the "Golden Heart," we said,
Would always be our emblem,
and by it we were led.
We'd celebrate our victories with chocolates and phosphates—
We never heard of calories or poly-unsaturates!

There were "giants" in those days,
within our sacred halls—
Candler, Ainsworth and Arthur Moore preached and gave altar calls.
And many girls found purpose and meaning for their lives—
They circled the earth and gave their all;
their labor still survives.

Our president, Dr. Jenkins,—
(Mrs. Burks as his right hand!)
Kept a constant, wary eye, lest we should see a man—
Except Grand Parlor dates,
Where fifty couples sat
As stiff as boards, while dateless girls strolled by to smile and chat!

And the faculty, God bless them!,
were patient with our whims,
When our minds were thousands of miles away,
engrossed with thoughts of "Hims"—
For war engulfed the nations, and we were stunned and shocked—
"Chateau Thierry," "Flanders Fields"— the whole world seemed dead-locked.

Armistice Day, at last—but our little world was gray
With agony, for the girl who learned her lover was killed that day!
And then came graduation,
those sheepskins were really ours,
With our families so proud of us!
Were there ever happier hours?

The "Grand Old Seniors" kept their try at Crow's Nest, 'neath the tree,
And out into the world we went to serve right gloriously!
But back again we oft returned—
Reunions came apace;
We kept alive those deep friendships which time could not efface.

We have served our Alma Mater
through all the changing years;
Supporting her with our gifts and love,
and sometimes with our tears.
Depression and two more wars have come and gone, and still We've stood by to cheer her on—and I know we always will.

"Old Wesleyan destroyed!" No—
that could never be,
As long as life shall last,
she will be a part of me.
But now I have three Wesleyans,
I love them all, you see—
The Old, The New, and best of all
The One That is Yet To Be!

From Idawee (Harlan) Jackson: "The autumn of 1962 brought sad news to my family. On Oct. 25th I lost my sister, Sue Harlan Jernigan. On Nov. 11th, I lost my husband and on Nov. 16th a beloved cousin, Dr. Sara (Branham) Matthews. I am now living with my son at 3909 Barcelon, in Tampa, Fla., and would love to hear from old friends."

Willie Snow Etheridge's latest book, "There's Yeast in the Middle East" is a witty account of her adventures in that part of the world. She said: "The title came naturally because that part of the world is in ferment—very explosive—as-sassinations—revolutions. And yet so many Americans are unconcerned about it. This frightens me. In most of the nations I visited, the people are very friendly to Americans, but in Egypt our stock has never been so low. We refused to build that Aswan Dam, then the Russians came along and offered to. What a propaganda stroke that was." Willie is the grandmother of 12, one grandchild for each book she has written. She says of herself: "I don't pretend to be an authority on foreign affairs. I write about what happens to me, some of the things that would happen to other travelers. I go to see the people and have as much fun as I can. My theory is, though, that all this builds a picture eventually of the nature of the country you're in. I don't like to travel in a hurry. I like slow boats, slow trains, so things can happen to me, so everyone can talk to me, and I to them." Her latest trip overseas included visits to Turkey, Iran, Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Jordan, Israel, and Saudi Arabia. She accompanied her husband who was on an assignment to report activities in Middle East nations for the Ford Foundation, of which he is a trustee.

From Harriet Holland: "It's wonderful living here in New York City, and I find my job as Director of Christian Education at the Church of the Good Neighbor awfully exciting. They have both an English and Spanish congregation and kids galore. We are located right in the middle of the Spanish sector of Harlem. I've just returned to work after a sunny vacation with the Spanish minister and his wife in Puerto Rico. While there, I lived with a typical family and gained a great deal of knowledge about the background of our people here."
